Is it alright?

Is it alright if I stay the night?
Is it alright if I do tell you
that I believe in me and you?
Is it alright?

Once I have told you I was a friend,
and now I can't anymore.
I want to live beside you all my life.

Is it alright if I stay the night?
Is it alright if I do tell you
that I believe in me and you?
Is it alright?

I've thought about it for many days
And now I know it is time
To say what I feel for you inside.

Is it alright if I stay the night?
Is it alright if I do tell you
that I believe in me and you?
Is it alright?

But I got to be sure, I got to be sure
That you don't leave me, you don't leave me.
And you can be sure, yes, you can be sure
That I won't leave you no more.

Everything I am I give to you.
I lay my heart in your hands.
Because I know you'll keep it safe and warm.

Is it alright if I stay the night?
Is it alright if I do tell you
that I believe in me and you?
Is it alright?
