Lost in the woods

We got lost in the woods, We got lost in the woods!
We can't see the world through the trees.
We got lost in the woods, lost in the woods!
Hard to say, where we've lost our way!

Look around hear the sound of the dooming day bell.
There's too many, too much on this highway to hell.
Where have we gone wrong, where have we lost our way.
Was it Adam and Eve, when they chose not to stay.
They have chosen the freedom, they've chosen to fight.
Now we're locking the chains round our feet real tight. All right!

We got lost in the woods, We got lost in the woods!
We can't see the world through the tree.
We got lost in the woods, lost in the woods!
Hard to say, where we've lost our way!

Well, my sister's gone crazy, she's always dead drunk.
She drinks in the morning, she stinks like a skunk.
My father is helpless don't know what to do.
I tell him there's nothing that he can do very true.

We got lost in the woods, We got lost in the woods!
We can't see the world through the tree.
We got lost in the woods, lost in the woods!
Hard to say, where we've lost our way!

We just ride on, on a train without brakes.
We just keep on doing things that are so wrong!
